

CLAIMS

We claim:

1. A storage container comprising:
an enclosure having an open top, a bottom, a first end, and a second end opposite the first end;
a first lid pivotally mounted to the first end, the first lid adapted to cover at least some of the open top; and at least one second lid detachably mounted between the first end and the second end, the second lid adapted to cover at least some of the open top.
2. The storage container as recited in claim 1, further comprising a third lid pivotally mounted to the second end, the third lid adapted to cover at least some of the open top.
3. The storage container as recited in claim 1, wherein the first end comprises a first end panel and wherein the first lid is pivotally mounted to the first end panel.
4. The storage container as recited in claim 2, wherein the first end comprises a first end panel and the second end comprises a second end panel, and wherein the first lid is pivotally mounted to the first end panel and the third lid is pivotally mounted to the second end panel.
5. The storage container as recited in claim 1, wherein the first lid is adapted to be pivotally mounted into a horizontal position outside the open top of the enclosure.
6. The storage container as recited in claim 2, wherein at least one of the first lid and third lid are adapted to be pivotally mounted into a horizontal position outside the open top of the enclosure.

7. The storage container as recited in claim 6, wherein at least one of the first lid and second lid are adapted to be pivotally mounted in a vertical position outside the open top of the enclosure.

8. The storage container as recited in claim 2, wherein the first lid, the second lid, and the third lid are adapted to substantially enclose the open top of the enclosure.

9. The storage container as recited in claim 1, further comprising at least one removable sub-container positioned within the enclosure.

10. The storage container as recited in claim 1, wherein the at least detachably mounted second lid comprises a plurality of detachably mounted second lids.
